

PAUL C MCD
World Class Piano Entertainer

Paul C McD has been a part of the live entertainment industry for over 20 years. Starting his career as a young performer at Expo 88, he moved on to play in 5 star venues throughout Australia as a Piano Entertainer including Hilton, Hyatt, Sheraton and many more.

He spent a large portion of his career entertaining audiences during the "Hollywood Days" of famous Hamilton Island and the Whitsundays.

The most unique venue he was to play was upon 1st class 5 star journeys on Queensland rails, Queenslander class to the well to do, and international visitors who would see Australia in style.

His performed later at many festivals including Woodford Festival, Queensland Fringe Festival Adelaide, Edinburgh Festival, Scotland.

Joining Howl at the Moon and Busters as a Duelling Piano Man being a highlight in a career already full of adventures, he continued to perform to audiences at great live venues including Twin Towns, Chattanooga and Major Clubs throughout Australia.

He joined Cruise ship company Holland America Line in 2011 and since then has travelled most corners of the world introducing his unique renditions of contemporary music to people from all over the world.

Along with P&O Australia and Holland America he created his launching pad for a new and exciting show.

The stage show 88 Keys DownUnder is a product of years entertaining a wide variety of different audiences and is the benchmark of his incredible career. A simple Australian boy who not only as a world class performer, but by his nature, wants to share his gift of music and just make people Feel Good!
